TO THE READER.

ALthough I am ſenſible, that Prefaces on theſe Occaſions are uſually interpreted as formal Commendations, rather than true Deſcriptions of the Books expoſed to Sale, yet, with relation to the enſuing Collection, it may not be improper to acquaint the Gentlemen, the Buyers, that the Books are conſiderable as to number, choice in their kind, (eſpecially the Divinity and Hiſtory,) and if we conſider the Qualifications extraordinary, as curiouſly bound, the moſt part being Gilded and Lettered, ſome of the Royal, and many of the Large Paper; which ſhort account I hope will be favourably received, becauſe it is for the Benefit of the reſpective Buyers,

Your Servant,

E. M.

This Sale will begin on Thurſday, the 17th day of this Inſtant February, 1687. at Richard's Coffee-Houſe, near the Middle-Temple Gate in Fleetſtreet, from the hours of Nine in the morning till Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening, till all the Books are ſold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall be forthwith expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the place where they are ſold; where, upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books ſhall be delivered for the Month aforeſaid.

IV. The Books to be ſeen for three whole days before the Auction begins.
